Hi Julie, Annie sent me this email about one of Stacey's samples. You may want to contact Macy Lee and decide how we will proceed with these types of requests. CBS

See below for the email. (re-testing)

I told Nicole I will send the standard discovery packet to her and that Stacey is unavailable to testify.

Thanks

Annie

Dear Annie,

I know you were not the primary analyst on the above case. Stacey Desjardins was. Since she is no longer there I'm wondering if you would be able to find her notes and forward them to me at your convenience.

In addition, I learned of the new US Supreme Court case which does not allow for substitute chemists to testify now. That being said, I may need to find Stacey. Is she still in the area? Otherwise I'll have to have the drugs sent back to the lab for testing. Let me know how your office would like me to address this. Thanks so much!
